PEDAL.

The first system of musical notation consists of three staves. The top staff is for the Manual, the middle for the Choir, and the bottom for the Pedal. The Manual part begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 6/8 time signature. It features a melodic line with a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, starting with a 'Sw.' (Swell) marking. The Choir part is written in a similar style with eighth and sixteenth notes. The Pedal part is in the bass clef and provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with eighth notes.

The second system continues the musical piece. The Manual part has a melodic line with various intervals and a final sharp sign at the end. The Choir and Pedal parts continue their respective parts with eighth and sixteenth notes.

The third system continues the musical piece. The Manual part has a melodic line with various intervals and a final sharp sign at the end. The Choir and Pedal parts continue their respective parts with eighth and sixteenth notes.

cresc. p

The fourth system concludes the musical piece. The Manual part features a melodic line with a crescendo marking and a final 'p' (piano) marking. The Choir and Pedal parts continue their respective parts with eighth and sixteenth notes.

The Alto, Tenor, and Bass, should remain in their seats during the performance of this piece, and sing sotto voce.

Nearer, ever nearer,
Christ, we draw to thee,
Deep in adoration,
Bending low the Knee.
Thou for our redemption
Camest on earth to die;
Thou, whom we might follow
Hast gone up on high.

True and everlasting
Are the glories there,
Where no pain, or sorrow,
Toil, or care, is known,
Where the Angel legions
Circle round Thy Throne.

Bliss, all bliss excelling,
When the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Finds its promised goal;
Where in joys unheard of
Saints with Angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King. Amen.

Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
The God of truth and love:
When He had purged our stains,
He took His seat above:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

His Kingdom cannot fail;
He rules o'er earth and heaven;
The keys of death and hell
Are to our Jesus given:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

4.

He sits at God's right hand
Till all his foes submit,
And bow to His command,
And fall beneath His feet:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice, again I say, rejoice. Amen.

 friend, Glo-ry su-preme be Thine till time shall end. A-men.

The musical score is written for four parts: two vocal staves (Soprano and Alto) and two piano staves (Right and Left Hand). The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'Fa-ther of heav'n in whom our hopes con-fide, Whose pow'r de-'. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support. The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The third system introduces the lyrics 'fends us, and whose precepts guide. In life our Guardian, and in death our'. The fourth system continues this section. The fifth system begins with 'friend, Glo-ry su-preme be Thine till time shall end. A-men.' and features a forte (f) dynamic for the piano part. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the piano part.
